MORE MEN IN COUNCIL

Manchester Politicians Are Eagerly Looking Around.

STREET-CAR MEN REPLY

Take Notice of the Action of the Board' Death of an Infant-Big Excursion to Beach Park-Elks' Meeting. Chicken Thief-Personal.

Manchester Bureau Times Dispatch, l No. 1102 Hull Street.

Members of the Council and politicians generally are figuring on the possibilities of new men in the Council incidental to the constitutional increase of membership in the lower branch of that body.

of new men in the Council incidental to the constitutional increase of membership in the lower branch of that body.

By the next meeting of the Council City Attorney Clopton will have examined the law on the subject and will be ready to give his opinion in reference to the matter.

It is quite likely that one additional Councilman will be chosen from each ward, making the total membership sixteen. Four from each ward.

CAR MEN REPLY.

There was some result from the resolution of the Board of Aldermen which was passed on Friday night in reference to the street railway situation. In reply to that resolution, which was sent to the committee of railway men, the following communication was yesterday received by City Clerk Hall:

"We are in receipt of a copy of the resolution adopted by your Board last night pertaining to the existing difference between the Virginia Passenger and Power Company and its employes, and we desire to assure you that the same meets with our hearty approval, and should a conference be granted by the railway company we will do our part in an effort to peaceably adjust the existing differences."

The letter was signed by Messrs, W. J. Griggs, W. A. Cleaton, E. W. Redford and P. F. DeForrest.

LARGE ENCURSION.

Fifteen coaches filled with employes of the Southern Road and their familles went to Beach Park "e. terday and returned last night after having spert a most happy day. The many attractions offered by the management of the park were taken advantage of, by the large crowd of excursionists, and the time was most pleasantly consumed.

Beach Park presents many conveniences for family excursions and for children, and these facts brought out many favorable comments from those who went to West Point.

ELKS' MEETING.

The regular meeting of Manchester Lodge will be held to morrow night, when a number of initiations will be held.

A large number of the members of this lodge will join with Richmond Lodge in the trip to Baltimore, and orders for the uniforms have been placed with Burk & Company.

CHICKEN THIEF.

During Friday night some time the chicken-house belonging to Mrs. Henry Odell, of No. 1213 Perry Street, was entered and six chickens stolen.

Shortly before midnight Miss Odell heard a noise as of some one attempting to enter the house. She had been in the habit of placing a pistol under her pillow, and when she heard the noise she drew it out and fired in the direction of the sound. The family was aroused, and the intruder made a disappearance.

BRILLIANT WEDDING

Marriage of Mr. Clyde M. Miller to Miss Laura Lasell Kimball.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) EAST RADFORD, VA., June 18 .- The marriage of Mr. Clyde M. Miller, of Wayne, W. Va., to Miss Laura Lasell Kimball, of Radford, which took place s marriage of Mr. Clyde M. Allier, of Wayne. W. Va., to Miss Laura Lasell Kimball, of Radford, which took place on Wednesday evening at Grace Episcopal Chapel, in Radford, was one of the most notable social events of the season in Southwest Virginia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Alfriend, of Charleston, W. Va., formerly rector of the Episcopal Church at Pulaski. The beautiful little chapel, the scene of the marriage, had been delicately decorated with the greatest abundance of mountain try and ferns, over which hung heavy chains of golden-hearted daisles. In the midst of the delicate blending colors of the wild flowers burned colored candles, numbering the years of the bride's age. The chapel was not crowded, but was seated comfortably, the company ndmitted by card. The entrance of the bridal party was preceded by ten young ladies: Missos Bess and Anna Kenderdine, Eta and Pearl Rosenfeld, Laura, Mary and Elrica Ingles Louise Venable, Lillian Longley and Annabelle Scott, all of whom were members of the A. T. Club. an organization of which the bride was a charter member. These fair heralds bere on their graceful shoulders, long chains of daises, which they looped along the pews, fastening with gilded horse-shoes before they took their places in quarter circles about the altar. With the first chords of the wedding march, the heavy doors of the chapel were thrown open by the ushers: Messrs, D. D. Hull, Jr., and Mr. George Lasell Kimball, and the maid of honor. Miss Chara Cox, of Ashland, Va., entered the alse. Gowned in white organdy, she bore a burden of briedsmald roses. Closely following Miss Cox, entered Miss Maidle Roach, of Dallas, Tex.; Miss Kathryn Acree, of Danville; Miss Emma Wysor, of Pulaski; Miss Anna Hull, of Marlon, and Miss Mattle Craighill, of Lynchburg. They were gowned in white organdy and carried great bouquets of the pink bridesmald roses. The bride came in with her father, Mr. George B. Kimball, and was met at the altar by the groom, who entered from the vestry room with his brothe

The bride is a daughter of Mr. George B. Kimball, a retired mine operator. Since her coming out a year ago she has been considered one of the most beautiful women in this section of the State and a most charming social favorite. Her presents, which occupied three rooms at the home on the night of the wedding reception, were extremely handsome and greatly admired. Mr. Miller is a son of the distinguished Colonel Rush Miller, of Pulaski, For a year or more he has been cashler of the Wayne county Bank, of Wayne, W. Negro Settlement Almost De. stroyed by Flood.

FAMILY IN GREAT NEED

Charitable People Coming to the Relief of Mrs. Alice Adams-Benches on the Hill-Side-Church Services To-Day.

Newtown, a negro settlement, between Fulton and Chimborazo Park, on the York River line, had a very narrow escape from being washed out of existence on Thursday afternoon. The settlement consists of almost twenty shantles, situated between Gillie's Creek and King's mill-race During the cloudburrat the mill-race passage was choked up, and the water began to pour over the banks into the creek, which was rising rapidly. The homes of the negroes began to full up at once, and in a few hours the shantles were partly inundated. Several of the inhabitants got to work to clear the mill-race passage, and shortly the water began to subside. Several small articles of furniture and other articles were lost in the fresht.

FAMILY IN NEED.

The family of Mrs. Alice Adams, residing on Fourth Street, who were in desiding on Fourth Street, who were in desident of the street of siding on Fourth Street, who were in destitue circumstances were partly relieved on yesterday. The family consist of two grown daughters, who are ill with typhold fever, several small children and their mother, a widow. As soon as their condition was made known to the public the citizens at once sent relief in the shape of medicine, clothing and food. The family is a very deserving one, and it is their first appeal for help. The father died several months ago, after a long illness, and since then the family has been in had luck, but up to the time the oldest daughters were stricken they managed to keep the wolf from the door.

Any assistance rendered the family will be appreciated.

In a few weeks a sub-station for the payment of gas and water bills will be established in Fulton. The exact location established in Fulton. The exact location of the station has not yet been designated, but will be central. The station will prove a convenience to the Fulton people, which has long been looked for.

After months of waiting, the much talked of benohes for the hillside facing the river arrived yesterday afternoon. The hillside is frequented considerably in the afternoons by ladies and children, who watch the movements of the boats on the river, and in general it is a substitute for a park. The benches will be an attraction and a comfort.

MOST SUCCESSFULMEET'G

Mr. D. J. Weisiger, Representative of the Old Dominion Line in Richmond, Made Eloquent Speech to the Gathering.

Mr. Benjamin S. Booker and Captain E. H. Lea, of this city, have just returned from Savannah, where they have been attending the meeting of the Southern Railway Agents' Association. The meeting was the most successful in its history, extending over a period of five years.

The place of meeting is not determined by the association, but by its Executive Committee.

Following were the officers elected: President—C. L. Candier, general agent of the line at Brunswick.

Vice-president—Theo, Parker, agent at Danville.

Becretary—W. G. Crutchfield, agent at Charlotte.

Treasurer—C. H. Lavender, agent at Reme.

Executive Committee—B. L. Bugg-chairman; H. E. Pierce, Louisville; J. T. Preston, Alexandrin, and the officers.

The meeting has developed many instructive matters of interest to the agents, who declare that they have received a great deal of help from the papers and talks they have heard during the sessions of the association.

J. Tipton, formerly one of the most prominent agents of the company, is now ill with an incurable disease at London, Tenn.
